

"Preserving Our History" Campaign

- ❖ Tell the story of Baltimore Hundred*
- ❖ Create a Coastal Towns Museum
- ❖ Build Halls Store Visitor and Education Center

The new Coastal Towns Museum in the Evans-West House, a 1901 Gothic Revival House at 40 West Avenue, will show life in eastern Sussex County from 1688-2000.

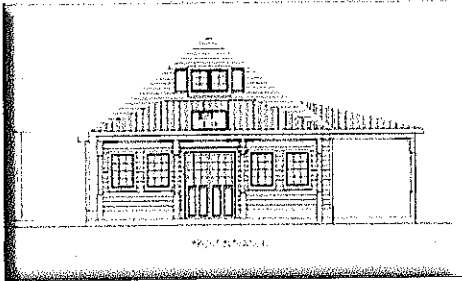

Evans-West House Painting by Laura Hickman

The property includes one of the oldest barns in Sussex County.

Halls Store Visitor and Education Center Before 1889, the Ocean View area was called "Hall's Store," since the Hall's family store served as marketplace, mailroom, and town meeting hall.

The Center will replicate the old -time country store in its front room where visitors will receive tour & historical information. The Center will also have meeting room to provide educational programs for school children and for our townspeople. A galley kitchen off the classroom will allow local groups to rent the meeting space for small group or family gatherings.
